

INTERSTATE PERFORMANCE SCHEDULES

20.5 code of practice for affiliates

VCA approval to conduct a fixture is on the understanding that the affiliate will endeavour to conduct and manage the fixture ensuring that the activities are an enjoyable experience for all members and that the fixture represents a public showcase of VCA activities.

In particular:

20.5.1 The affiliate is to ensure that ANKC judges contracts are completed fully and reflect all of the affiliate's requirements, especially in relation to embargoes.

20.5.2 The show secretary is to ensure that contracted conformation judges are notified of the number of exhibits entered for each breed. Such notification is to be communicated in writing so as to reach the judges at least seven days before the date of the show.

20.5.3. The affiliate committee is to ensure that non Australian judges are briefed on the VCA and ANKC procedures for judging.

20.5.4. Affiliate committee personnel involved in facilitating judges shall not handle dogs under those judges nor participate at the competition area in such a way as to compromise the perception of fairness.

20.5.5 The show secretary is to ensure that entry fees are banked promptly to ensure that invalid cheques / payments are identified.

20.5.6 The show manager is to ensure that all stewards are competent in the duties required of them, and arrange appropriate support where necessary.

20.5.7. The affiliate is to ensure adequate provision for and maintenance of parking, toilets, foodstuffs [if applicable], first aid, competition and exhibitor areas.

20.5.8 The affiliate is to ensure that safe and unimpeded access is provided around and to the rings.

20.5.9 The affiliate committee is to appoint a VCA representative as required by VCA regulations and provide the administrative and logistic support required by VCA procedures - fixture incidents / complaints.

20.5.10 Aggressive dog incidents are to be dealt with in accordance with VCA regulation 3.5.6.

20.5.11 The affiliate committee is to ensure that persons attending the fixture comply with acceptable standards of behaviour, and therefore the committee is to be fully conversant with the VCA procedures - fixture incidents / complaints.

NOTE: "facilitating" referred to in 20.5.4 does not include normal secretarial communication relating to contractual and travel arrangements.

AGM – Notices of business from members

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING AGENDA ITEMS

As per rule 2.98 members wishing to place an item of business on the agenda for the 2017 AGM shall give notice in writing of that item to the CE by no later than 31 January 2017.

The notice must include the names and VCA membership number of the mover and seconder.

Notes for the benefit of members submitting notices of business:

1. A notice of business that seeks to amend, delete or insert a clause of the constitution or a rule, must be worded as a special resolution. See also regulation 6.2.1.
2. Any other notice of business should be worded as an ordinary resolution.
3. A notice of business that directs or seeks to direct the management committee in any matter that is a power of the management committee [Clause 1.5 of the constitution] would not be a proper matter for an AGM, and therefore would be an invalid notice of business.
4. Members are invited to seek assistance with the wording of any notice of business.
