of prefix _____ are applying for a lifetime prefix.

- ☐ The owner of any prefix that has been held continuously for a period of 15 years may apply to protect their prefix for a further 25 years subject to a payment of a fee and providing that the prefix is not being actively used. After the expiry of the second 25 years the owner of the prefix may apply to renew the arrangement on similar terms.
- ☐ Where a protected prefix is required to be used again the period of protection shall be suspended and normal prefix fees shall be payable during the active period after which the remainder of the protected period comes back into effect. This provision to apply once only, subsequent active use of the prefix shall result in the remainder of the protected period being cancelled until renewed for a further twenty five (25) years.

I/We as the owner of the prefix above are registered with Dogs Australia sincerely declare that I/we meet and understand the above conditions of transferring the prefix to a lifetime prefix.
