5 – DISCIPLINE

5.1 GENERAL

- 5.1.1 Where a member or affiliate submits a complaint or appeal, the complaint or appeal must be accompanied by the prescribed fee. The amount of the fee shall be as determined by the Management Committee from time to time and published in Dogs Victoria Scale of Charges. Member to member complaints must be lodged with Dogs Victoria office within 14 days of the alleged breach. If the complainant can provide evidence that exceptional circumstances prevented the complaint being lodged within 14 days, additional time may be granted. (Amended 15/04/25)
- 5.1.2 If a complaint submitted in accordance with Rule 2.20 contains insufficient information for the Chairpersons of the Investigation Committee and the Mediation Panel to determine the appropriate process for the complaint, then the complaint is to be rejected as one not to be dealt with by Dogs Victoria.
- 5.1.3 Where a complaint involves misconduct or a breach of Rules, Regulations or Codes, the complaint will generally be referred for Investigation rather than Mediation.
- 5.1.4 Where the Chairpersons of the Investigation Committee and the Mediation Panel decide a complaint submitted in accordance with Rule 2.20 shall be mediated and either or both parties refuse to mediate or the mediation proceeds but fails to resolve the complaint, the provisions of Rule 2.23.9 shall apply.
- 5.1.5 Where the Management Committee receives information that indicates a member or an affiliate may have breached any of Dogs Victoria Rules, Regulations or Codes, the Management Committee may refer the matter for investigation or mediation.
- 5.1.6 Where a member or representative of an Affiliate fails, without reasonable excuse, to attend a DOGS VICTORIA inquiry, investigation or hearing the matter may proceed in their absence.
- 5.1.7 Management Committee may require any person to make a written statement or statutory declaration of the facts of any matter.
- 5.1.8 A member shall not electronically record or transmit or be party to the electronic recording or transmitting of any proceedings taking place before Management Committee or any Dogs Victoria Committee without the prior permission of the Management Committee or the Chairperson of the relevant DOGS VICTORIA Committee.
- 5.1.9 No person present at any hearing before the Disciplinary Committee shall disclose verbally, in writing, or by any other means to any person who was not so present any information regarding the findings of the Disciplinary Committee or any penalty imposed before the requirements of Regulations 5.4.5, 5.4.6 or 5.4.7 have been met.
- 5.1.10 Persons involved in a meeting of Dogs Victoria, or a meeting, hearing or the like of a Dogs Victoria Committee are to conduct themselves with decorum and in a manner acceptable to the Chairperson. Where a person fails to comply with this requirement the Chairperson is to formally warn the person. If after having been warned the person continues to fail to comply, the Chairperson is to:
- 5.1.10.1 Direct the person to leave the meeting, hearing or the like immediately;
  - 5.1.10.2 Continue the meeting, hearing or the like in the person's absence;
  - 5.1.10.3 Advise the Management Committee in writing of the occurrence.
- 5.1.11 Deleted. (15/09/19)

- 5.1.12 Whilst a member is involved in the disciplinary process, no transaction will be processed which changes the registration status of any dog or prefix owned, part owned, leased or part leased by that member. This will include any application that is received by Dogs Victoria office and back dated prior to the start of the disciplinary process. (15/11/25)
- 5.1.13 If a respondent resigns from membership of Dogs Victoria or becomes unfinancial after a complaint has been received and the disciplinary process has not been completed; the following procedures will apply to ensure procedural fairness for all parties: (15/12/25)
- Continuation of Investigation:
The investigation will proceed in accordance with the standard process. The respondent, now an ex- member, will be notified in writing that the investigation is ongoing. They will be offered the opportunity to provide a statement or submit evidence, as per the current procedure. If they choose not to do so, the investigation will proceed based on the information available.
  - Disciplinary Hearing:
If the investigation concludes that a breach has occurred, the ex-member will be informed of the findings and invited to attend a disciplinary hearing. Should they decline to attend, the hearing will proceed in their absence.
  - Penalties and Enforcement:
If the Disciplinary Panel determines that the ex-member is guilty of the breach and a penalty is imposed, that penalty will remain outstanding until the individual chooses to renew their membership. Upon receipt of an application to rejoin, any penalties will be enforced, and any associated fines must be paid, otherwise the membership will not be reinstated.
  - Appeals:
An unfinancial respondent wishing to appeal a disciplinary decision may only do so once they have reinstated their membership and become a financial member again.
- 5.1.14 Information provided by a member to a duly authorised person or persons must be complete to the best of the member's knowledge and must not be false or misleading. If an inspection of a member's premises is involved, no dog normally under the care of the member may be concealed from the authorised person or persons or be absent from the premises during the inspection. (15/12/25)

  - 5.5.6.3 Order a re-hearing of the charge by a new Disciplinary Hearing; or
  - 5.5.6.4 In the case of an appeal by the Management Committee confirm the penalty or penalties, increase or vary the penalty or penalties imposed on the Respondent including any order to pay costs.
- 5.5.7 The Chairperson shall without delay advise the Office Operations Manager in writing of the decision of the Appeals Committee. The Office Operations Manager shall within seven days of receipt thereof advise the Management Committee and the Appellant of such decision. Notice of the same to the Appellant shall be in writing and sent by Express Post or delivered personally to the Appellant.
(Amended 15/09/25,15/10/24)

5.6 PENALTIES

- 5.6.1 The Disciplinary Committee and the Appeals Committee in acting under these Regulations have power to impose any one or more of the following penalties:
- 5.6.1.1 To suspend or disqualify or otherwise debar any person from judging and/or taking part in and/or having any connection with and/or attending any exhibition of dogs held under Dogs Victoria Rules and Regulations or being associated with any affiliated body.
  - 5.6.1.2 To suspend or disqualify or otherwise debar from competition all or any dogs owned and/or part-owned and/or leased and/or part-leased by him or her and/or registered in his or her name as at the date when the information and/or report was supplied to the Chief Executive of Dogs Victoria by the Disciplinary Committee or Appeals Committee.
  - 5.6.1.3 To cancel or strike from its records the registration of any dog or dogs owned and/or part-owned and/or leased and/or part-leased by any person referred to in these Regulations for such time as the Disciplinary Committee or Appeals Committee deems fit.
  - 5.6.1.4 To refuse to register any litter bred from any dog or bitch owned and/or part-owned and/or leased and/or part-leased by any person referred to in these Regulations.
  - 5.6.1.5 To impose a fine payable within a specified period as prescribed in the Associations Incorporation Act 1981.
  - 5.6.1.6 To suspend or disqualify any person from membership of Dogs Victoria.
  - 5.6.1.7 To impose any other penalty as they deem fit, including awarding costs.
  - 5.6.1.8 To suspend or disqualify any incorporated body from association with Dogs Victoria either unconditionally or subject to such terms and conditions regarding reinstatement as it deems fit.
- 5.6.2 All penalties imposed shall be observed and enforced by all bodies affiliated with Dogs Victoria and Member Bodies of DOGS AUSTRALIA.

- 5.6.3 Any member of Dogs Victoria suspended or disqualified, or any person who becomes ineligible in accordance with the provisions of the Rules and Regulations of Dogs Victoria, shall not be entitled to the return of any portion of that member's annual subscription or any other fees.
- 5.6.4 Any penalty involving ineligibility, disqualification or suspension imposed on a member shall also apply to all dogs registered in the name of or owned or part owned or leased or part leased by that member.
- 5.6.5 Where a fine payable within a specified period has been imposed on a member by a Disciplinary Hearing and the fine has not been paid within the specified period, the member's membership shall be suspended until such time as the fine is paid.
- 5.6.6 For the purposes of this Regulation, the offence of "cruelty" is as defined in the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1986 (as amended from time to time): Where a member has been found guilty by a Disciplinary Panel and or an Appeal Panel of cruelty to an animal, whether or not that animal is owned in full or in part by that member or by another person, the penalty is the automatic expulsion for life of that member, and the provision of Regulation 5.6.4 shall apply save that where the expelled member has the benefit of an unexpired lease, the lease shall immediately be terminated and the registration of the dog the subject of the lease shall revert to the lessor, provided that the lessor is not involved in the act of cruelty. (15/03/17)
- 5.6.7 Any instance of animal abuse at any Dogs Victoria sanctioned event must be reported. Excessive disciplining of a dog, neglect endangering a dog's wellbeing, the whelping of a bitch at an event, lifting a dog by means of neck/lead and tail, are examples of actual physical abuse and are strictly prohibited.
- Where such behaviours take place during judging of any event, the exhibitor/handler should be immediately removed from the event and the behaviour reported to Dogs Victoria representative. (15/05/18)
